Each level has already been partly uncovered by local workers and it is up to your team to finish the dig.

Unfortunately, the workers digging aroused Guardians left behind by the ancient Egyptian Pharaohs to protect their royal tombs.

Each level has 2 Guardian Mummies, one lies hidden while the other goes in search of intruders.

The partly excavated levels are in the form of a grid made up of twenty 'boxes'.

To uncover a 'box', move your team along the four sides of the box from each corner to the next.

Not all boxes need to be uncovered to enable you to go through the Exit and into the next level.

When the boxes holding the Key and the Royal Mummy have been uncovered, you will be able to leave the level. Any remaining Guardians will be able to follow you onto the next level.

After completing all 5 levels of a pyramid you will, when you leave the fifth level, move to level 1, of the next pyramid.

Press "C" or Fire Button to Continue

When you have completed a pyramid, your success will be rewarded either by bonus points or the arrival of an extra member for your team.

The Guardians in the next pyramid, having been warned by those you have escaped from, will be more alert, so although the Guardians cannot follow you from one pyramid to the next, it will pay to be more careful.
